Fresh Window Gallery is pleased to present CH – NY, a group show with the three current winners of the Swiss artist-in-residency programs. Each year various grants are given from different parts of Switzerland to provide a cultural exchange to selected artists. CH - NY displays new works the three artists created during their residencies in New York in Spring 2016. The winner of the residency from the Federal Office of Culture is Cyril Porchet a photographer from Lausanne, whose work examines the possible layers and movement of this medium, resulting in a beautiful depiction of fragility and vulnerability. The winners of the residency from the City of Zurich is the artist duo Monica Germann & Daniel Lorenzi, whose wall drawings use very different elements - art historical influences as well as the objects of daily life, or the records and equipment of their musical passion. The winner of the residency from the City of Berne is Filip Haag whose bronze sculptures appear to freeze a moment of fragility and beauty grounded in stability. This exhibition allows a glimpse into a wonderful cultural exchange between Switzerland and New York.
